DECEMBER 2018

OUTGOING CHAIR CHRIS RATHJEN

At the December 2018 Board of Directors meeting Kelly Rachel, incoming Chair, thanked Chris Rathjen, outgoing Chair, for her leadership on the JSDC Board.

Chris will continue with JSDC, serving as Past-Chair in the coming year. She will have 9 years with JSDC at the end of 2019.

Thank you, Chris, for your leadership!

OUTGOING DIRECTORS

JSDC also says farewell to Jamestown City Council representatives Katie Andersen & Ramone Gumke and Stutsman County Commission representative Dale Marks. Thank you for many years of service. We wish you the best in your future endeavors!

CENTRAL BUSINESS SYSTEMS INC. Realizing Big Success as a Small Business

Central Business Systems prides itself on customer care. The Service Department has received numerous awards including the coveted Gold Medallion Award from Kyocera. Technical staff is constantly reviewing new techniques and attending training to increase customer service and support. Central Business Systems is factory trained and certified on every model of Kyocera equipment they sell. "Last November we were given an award for being the largest purchasing Kyocera dealer in the state of North Dakota. That has been our biggest accomplishment since we bought the business." Continuing to receive recognition for sales, purchasing, and service is a priority for the CBSI's future.

Great Opportunity for North Dakota Employers

2019 NDSCS Career Fair
